

Archival Photo Scanning Technician, Washington, DC.

LAC Group seeks candidates for the position of Archival Photo Scanning Technician in Washington, DC. Responsibilities include operating high-resolution scanning equipment (including glass plates) and performing objective and subjective quality control image assessments of images. Must have at Bachelor's Degree and at least seven (7) years of experience in the imaging of reflective and transmissive analog objects for cultural heritage institutions.

Required Qualifications:

- * Seven years of specialized experience in the imaging of reflective and transmissive analog objects for cultural heritage institutions
- * Bachelor's degree from an accredited college
- * Strong background in film photography, digital photography, graphic arts and imaging systems
- * Ability to work on complex projects independently with thorough knowledge of imaging application packages including Photoshop
- * Ability to take corrective actions to insure that the image quality meets the LOC project-based requirements including the Federal Agencies Digital Imaging guidelines

To Apply: In order to be considered, please submit your cover note and resume. To submit your application please visit:

<http://bit.ly/ArchivalPhotoScanningTech>

To view all of our currently open positions please visit: <http://lac-group.com/lac-group/careers/>

LAC Group is an Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action Employer who values diversity in the workplace.